

1959 White City Baseball Boys... 1974 White City Pee Wee League

When the south valley was just farms, an urban community grew in the fields of Salt Lake County. Dewey Bluth gave them a place to practice. The grounds where Bear Park exists became their playground. One of the more famous is Ron Yengich. He has become a prominent criminal defense attorney. His mother and aunt, who have been valuable assets to White City, still live in our community.

Winners of the White City Pee Wee League are, from left, front row, Scott Ainsworth, James Arnold, Blake Barton, Russell Minnock, Danny Whittenburg, Danny Thackery; second row, Ronald Strebel, Dennis Ainsworth, Gene Player, Chad Cloward, Al Halladay, Rowdy Dow, John Sharp, Bert Cloward, coach, stands at rear. Not present for picture were Dana Freebaron and Manager Joe Thackery.

"THE YANKEES"
-1959-

Here are the pictures you wanted. In the team picture front row, Lynn Runalfson, Keith Dangerfield, Me, Howard Dahley, Doug Holt. Second row, Steve Hirsche, Richard Dangerfield, Craig Hansen, the next kid I don't know, Mike VanTassel, Alan Lattimer. Last row, Ron Burke, Boyd Householder.

Ron

RON

1959 -RON YENGICH